Councilman Kwanza Hall Helps APD Kick-off Police in the Park

ATLANTA – Atlanta City Councilmember Kwanza Hall is pleased to join the Atlanta Police Department (APD) to kick-off the first of three Police in the Park events on Friday, July 8 from 5:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.

Officers from APD will be at the Historic Fourth Ward Skatepark, 830 Willoughby Way, to educate residents on crime prevention, bicycle safety, and more.

Citizens are encouraged to attend and enjoy free refreshments while they meet their local police officers.

Activities for children will include a bike and helmet giveaway, Soccer in the Streets, Girls Scouts of Greater Atlanta, and the Department of Parks and Recreation's PLAY MOBILE – a recreation center on wheels.

Friday's event is held in partnership with the Atlanta Police Foundation, the Department of Parks and Recreation, the Atlanta BeltLine, and Councilmember Hall.

For more information, contact the COPS Unit at (404) 546-5650 or atlantacops@atlantaga.gov.
